HIS LAST TESTAMENT.

Louis Riel Asks for Pardon—Thanks His Mother, Brothers and Sisters.

The Hand of Friendship—His Faithful—Pathetic Appeal to his Wife.

I make my testament according to counsel given me by the Rev. Father Alexis Andre, my charitable confessor and most devoted director of my conscience. In the name of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, I do declare that this is my testament, that I have written it freely, in the fullest possession of my faculties. Men having fixed the 16th of November next as that of my death, and as it is possible the sentence will be executed, I declare beforehand that my submission to the orders of Providence is sincere, my will is ranged with entire liberty of action under the influence of the divine grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, on the side of the Roman Catholic and Apostolic church. I was born in it, and it is by her also that I have been regenerated. I have retracted what I have said and professed contrary to her teaching, and I retract it again. I ask pardon for

THE SCANDAL I HAVE CAUSED.

I do not wish that there should be a difference between me and the priesthood of Jesus Christ as great as the point of a needle. If I should die on the tenth of the month, that is to say in four days, I wish to do all in my power, with the divine succor of my Saviour, to die in perfect harmony with my Creator, my Redeemer, my Sanctifier, and with the Holy Catholic Church, and if my God wishes well to accord me the gift inestimable of life, I wish, on my side, to mount the scaffold and to resign myself to the will and end of Providence by holding myself apart, as I am to-day, from all earthly things, for I understand the most certain means of doing well and of having durable fruits, is to praise and perform all enterprises in a manner entirely disinterested, without passion, without excitement, entirely in sight of God, while loving your neighbor, your friend and your enemy as yourself for the love of God. I thank for having loved me, and for having loved me with a love so Christian. I demand of her pardon for all the faults of which I have been guilty against the love, the respect and obedience that I owe her. I beg of her to pardon also the faults that I have committed against my duty toward my well loved and regretted father and towards his venerable memory. I thank my brothers and sisters for their great love and kindness to me. I also ask their pardon for my faults of all kinds, and for all the errors for which I have been culpable in their eyes. I thank my wife for having always been so good and gentle to me, in particular, my affectionate and well loved father-in-law, my mother-in-law, my brothers-in-law and my sisters-in-law. I beg of them also to pardon whatever has not been right in me and all that has been evil in my conduct. I give while taking into account the excuses that may be in my favor; and as to

MY GOOD AND TENDER MOTHER

THE REAL SUM OF MY FAULTS,

mes culpabilités, I hope they will have in goodness to forgive them all before God and man. I pardon, with all my heart, with all my mind, with all my force, with all my soul, those who have caused me chagrin, who have given me pain, who have done me harm, who have persecuted me, who have without any reason made war on me for five years, who have given me the semblance of a trial, who have condemned me to death, and if they really mean to give me to death, I pardon them this entirely, as I ask God to pardon me all my offences entirely in the name of Jesus Christ. I thank my wife for having been so good and charitable to me, for the part she has so patiently taken in my painful works and difficult enterprises. I pray her to pardon me the sadness I have voluntarily and involuntarily caused her. I recommend to her the care of her little children, to bring them up in

THE HAND OF TRUE FRIENDSHIP

to my friends of all ages, of all ranks, of all conditions and of all positions. I thank them for the services they have rendered me. Particularly am I grateful towards my friends who have deigned to busy themselves with my affairs in public, both on this and on the other side of the line, to the Oblats of Marie Immaculate, the Society of St. Sulpice, to the Grey Nuns, for all the good and kindness I have received from them from my infancy, I return them my thanks. I have benefactors on the other side of the line, friends whose goodness to me has been beyond measure. I beg them to accept my thanks, and to charitably excuse my defects, and if my conduct has in any way been offensive to them, whether in great or small matters, I beg of them to pardon me.

A CHRISTIAN MANNER

with particular attention to all that relates to good thoughts, good words, good actions and good companions. I desire that my children may be brought up with great care in all that belongs to obedience to the church, their masters and superiors. I urge them to show the greatest respect, the greatest submission and the most complete affection towards their good mother. I do not leave to my children gold or silver, but I beg God of His infinite pity, Je supplie les entrailles de la miséricorde de Dieu, to fill my mind and my heart with the true paternal blessing which I desire to give them. Jean, mon fils; Marie Angelique, ma fille; I bless you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost, so that you may be attentive to know the will of God, and faithful to accomplish it in all piety and in all sincerity; that you may practise virtue solidly but simply, without parade or ostentation; that you do while bidding to yourself, without being wanting to others within the limits of just obedience to the opposed bishops and the priests, especially to your bishop and your confessor. I bless you that your death may be sweet, edifying, good and holy in the eye of the church, and in that of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. I bless you, in fine, that you may seek and find the Kingdom of God, and that you may have, moreover, rest in Jesus, in Marie and Joseph. Pray for me.

THE MOST GOOD POSSIBLE

"I have my testament to the Rev. Pere Alexis Andre, my confessor. I pray my friends everywhere to hold the name of Pere Andre side by side with my own. I love Father Andre.

"Son of Louis Riel and of Julie De la Gimodiere."

THE BRITISH ELECTIONS.

Up to Noon To-day Liberals, 141; Conservatives, 135; Nationalists, 19.

Large Gains by the Conservatives of the New and Old Seats.

LONDON, midday, Nov. 28.—The results of the elections so far show the Liberals to have elected 141 candidates, Conservatives, 135, and Nationalists, 19. Leamy, Nationalist, was elected in the County of Cork; Chaplin, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, under the Conservative administration, was elected for Sealforth division of Lincolnshire by a hundred majority over the Liberal opponent. Hon. C. T. Kenyon, Conservative, has been elected in Denbigh, district of Wales, over Sir R. Cunliffe, Liberal, who sat for the district in the last Parliament. This is the first return from Wales.

The Liberals have gained six old seats and the Conservatives 34. The Liberals have won 38 new seats and the Conservatives 58. The Conservatives have gained the seat for Montgomeryshire, Watkin Wynn, Conservative, having been elected over Stuart Rendell, Liberal, who sat for the district in the last Parliament. Rival crowds of people are assembled in front of the various newspaper offices, cheering the results as they are posted. The excitement is very great. Charles Stuart Parnell and Timothy Michael Healy, Nationalists, have been elected for two of the divisions of Cork City. The vote was as follows: Parnell, 6716; Healy, 6295; Pike, 1846; Bambridge, 1401.

THE CONTEST IN BRITAIN.

REVIEW OF THE RESULT.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The reflection is still unchecked, and the enthusiasm of the Conservatives is unbounded and contagious. Great crowds gather in the neighborhood of bulletin boards and cheer the announcement of sweeping Tory successes. The Conservatives have carried five of the six Manchester divisions. Sugar operatives of, East St. Georges returned Mr. Ritchie, an advocate of countervailing duties. In Hampstead Sir H. Holland, Conservative, who received 2765 votes, defeated the Marquis of Lorne, Liberal, who received 1810. In Westminster, Mr. Burdett-Coutts, the baroness' husband, polled 2993 votes, defeating Prof. E. J. Beasley, Liberal, who received 2,000 votes. A split in northeast Manchester enabled Sir Jas. Ferguson, Conservative, to defeat a former home ruler, R. P. Blennerhassett, Liberal. In southwest Manchester, Lord Frederick Hamilton, Conservative, defeated Jacob Bright, Liberal, brother of Mr. John Bright. In east Manchester A. J. Balfour, Conservative, nephew of the Marquis of Salisbury, was victorious. East Finsbury gave I. Bigwood, Conservative, a majority of 20 over Rowland, labor candidate, protege of Mr. Dreidbugh. In East Marylebone Beresford is elected, and great enthusiasm prevails over the result. In a speech Beresford said the Liberals had gained scarcely any new boroughs, and barely held their own in divisions. Any Liberal in south Kildare, Leahy was elected without opposition. In Rochdale, Potter is elected. In Hastings, Shaw and Stansfield are successful. Sir F. Brassey is returned for Hastings. In Rochester, Hamilton received 5527, and Parkhurst, home ruler, 2800. In Oxford, Hall is elected. In Galway City, C. P. O'Connor received 1330, and Hallet, Tory, 1640. O'Connor is elected to a seat for Liverpool.

SATURDAY'S ELECTIONS.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The following parliamentary candidates were elected to-day: City of London, R. N. Lowler (Conservative), 12,827 votes, over Hubbard, 8802; S. P. Low (Liberal), 5817 votes, over W. J. R. Cotton (Conservative), 5563; Lambeth, Kennington division, R. Gent Davis (Conservative), 3351 votes, over J. O'Connor Power (Liberal), 2261; Mayo, Mr. Crilly, unopposed; Kery, Mr. Stack, unopposed; Meath, Mr. Sheil, unopposed. The Liberals gained in Salisbury. The totals thus far are as follows: Liberals, 91, Conservatives, 90, Nationalists 6; Liberal gain 6, Tory gain 27.

FRIDAY'S ELECTIONS.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—Returns up to one o'clock this morning show that 109 Liberals, 108 Tories and 10 Parnellites have been elected. The Liberal gains so far are six seats and the Tory gains twenty-nine seats. The latest election returns show that up to the present date 112 Liberals and 109 Tories are elected. Portsmouth has elected the two Liberal candidates.

Mr. Gladstone is fearfully chagrined over the result, and has abandoned all hope of more than the barest Liberal majority, at the best. He has arranged to leave Scotland on Saturday, traveling by the night mail, in order to avoid ward demonstrations on the way.

Tory newspapers to-day say that so far the Tory reaction exceeds the Liberal reaction of 1880.

The Standard warns the Liberals not to endanger the unity of the empire by further attempt to reduce the Conservative majority.

The News attributes the defeat of the Liberals to the church and Parnell vote, but says there is no need to despair, if the Whigs and Radicals maintain active unity.

CERTAIN AND CONFIDENT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Private dispatches from London this afternoon give the result of the elections so far thus:

The Liberals have secured 118 seats; Conservatives 119 and the Parnellites 11. Result is quite uncertain. The Liberals are sanguine and the Conservatives confident.

THE DEAD KING.

MADRID, Nov. 27.—The ministers of war and minister of the interior have ordered all provincial officials to use the utmost tact and discretion so long as order prevails, to take immediate and energetic action if the slightest disorder appears and to proclaim a state of siege when necessary. The editors of the journal La Discussion have been arrested for publishing a head line "Alfonso is Dead! Long live the Republic."

—Messrs. Dufon & Co. will sell tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock at their salesroom, Government street, a quantity of saddlery, &c.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The President's Message—Arrangements for Attending Hendricks' Funeral.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 27.—A regular meeting of the Cabinet was held to-day, at which all the members were present. The President's message, as far as completed, was read, and unanimously approved. It is said to be an unusually strong paper, containing many new and valuable suggestions. The question of of Vice President Hendricks was considered. Two or three members of the Cabinet said it would be almost impossible for them to leave the city just now, without neglecting many matters which it is important should be settled before the meeting of Congress. The President expressed his determination to attend the funeral. His message was almost ready and could be finished on his return from Indianapolis. The Postmaster General and Secretary of Navy and War, said their reports were ready, and thought they would be able to accompany the President. The Secretary of State also thought he could arrange to go with the party. Other members, however, said the affairs of their departments would prevent their leaving the city. It was finally decided to leave the matter with the ex-members with the general understanding that all who consistently could, would attend.

Arrangements have been made for those going to the funeral to go to Indianapolis via the Pennsylvania road, leaving Washington at 9:30 Monday morning, and arriving at Indianapolis Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock. Returning, they will leave Indianapolis at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening and arrive at Washington Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock.

SHOULD NOT LEAVE THE WHITE HOUSE.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 27.—In connection with the announced intention of the President to attend Hendricks' obsequies on Tuesday night, the Journal says: While citizens of Indianapolis and the state of Indiana would be both proud and pleased to meet the President of the United States, for whom a plurality of their votes was cast a year ago, with such honor and respect as the proprieties of the sad event of the funeral of the Vice-President would permit; while the friends and neighbors of Thomas A. Hendricks fully appreciate the honor that would be done his memory by the presence of the Chief Magistrate here on Tuesday next, the Journal feels constrained to say that it believes Cleveland should not leave the White House at this juncture to make this journey. Dangers necessary to the rapid movement of a special train should not be hazarded by the President, whose life and active services are now peculiarly valuable to the whole people. There are too many perils during the last quarter of a century; but party lines have on more than one occasion been drawn to its highest tension. There should not be the possibility of another strain, if prudence can prevent it. Every honorable citizen in the country regardless of party faith will pray for the life and health of the President, who stands alone now as the embodiment of constitutional power and authority. From the moment that he should leave the capital until it is safely again re-seated the country would be in a patriotic unrest. The Journal feels free to make this statement as a Republican newspaper, and published at the home of Mr. Hendricks, and as one against whom the charge cannot be made that it would do or say anything against the largest possible measure or honor to the distinguished dead. Cleveland is not his own; he is not his party's. He cannot follow merely the dictates of his own personal or political friendship. He is the nation's head; the only life between the government and an interregnum. In view of all this we would not have him take the risks incidental to rapid transit, which would mark his journey from the National Capital to Indianapolis. Let all Secretarys come who can be spared from their official duties, but the President should not leave Washington

THE GALLOWS AGAIN.

Eight Indians Pay Death Penalty at Battleford Yesterday.

The Frog Lake Massacre Terribly Avenged—Acknowledging their Guilt.

BATTLEFORD, Nov. 27.—All preparations for the execution of the eight Indians, convicted as perpetrators in the terrible Frog Lake massacre, on the 3rd of last April, were completed at an early hour this morning. The day opened dark and cloudy. The condemned savages were attended by their spiritual advisers, Fathers Bigueraso and Cochin, who received the last wishes of the unfortunates. All were willing to die and had no anxiety except for their families. Large numbers of Indians from neighboring reserves were present. A strong guard was mounted and police were around the scaffold. The procession was formed at 7 a.m. Each man was pinioned and a black cap drawn over his head. They were guarded on either side and marched with steady step to the scaffold, taking

THEIR PLACES ON THE TRAP.

Wandering Spirit and Miserable Man addressed the Indians, acknowledged the justice of the sentence and warned them to keep clear distance in the future. The whole then joined in a death chant to show they did not fear death. The executioner then drew the caps over their faces, the priests addressed parting words, in the midst of which the bolt was drawn and the drop fell, all dying instantly. Dr. Ralph examined the bodies and pronounced life extinct after hanging fifteen minutes. They were cut down and placed in coffins and handed over to the coroner and jury. The gallows stood the strain without a tremor, and all arrangements were carried out without a hitch, its mechanism working with perfection. It is to be hoped the execution of these Indians will have a salutory effect on those who survive them.

THE COLD-BLOODED MURDERS,

for which the Indians expiated their lives to-day were amongst the most brutal of all the terrible cruel acts committed during the recent insurrection. The Indian Agent, T. W. Turner, a Sioux half breed, was the first victim; Gonin, another American half-breed, was the next victim. Then followed the shooting of Delaney and Ark, the miller, who were shot in the presence of their wives. Dill, Craft and Gilchrist were killed while attempting to escape. Fathers Marchand and Fafard were shot while endeavoring to stay the work of the murderers. Wandering Spirit, the direct cause of the terrible bloodshed, was a tall, spare, powerful Indian, with the usual black eyes and coarse features of the Cree. At the time of the massacre he was an influential member of Big Bear's band. He was 53 years of age.

THE OTHER VICTIMS.

Of the remainder of the men executed this morning Bad Arrow and Miserable Man were jointly indicted for the murder of Charles Gonin; Iron Body and Little Bear were tried for the murder of George Dill, one of the last victims of the massacre; Round the Sky, another of Big Bear's followers, was convicted of the murder of Marchand; Man Without Blood belonged to Mosoomin's band, and the crime for which he was sentenced was killing Bernard Tremont, a traveler, living near Battleford; Ikta, a Stony Indian, was sentenced to death for the murder of James Payne, former instructor of the Stony reservation near Battleford, on the 30th of March.

ALFONSO'S DEATH.

MADRID, Nov. 27.—The body of King Alfonso was received in this city with great pomp. The Queen and her daughters occupied the carriage which followed immediately after the funeral car. There were two thousand carriages in the funeral cortege. The Queen was deeply veiled in order to conceal her emotion. As the procession passed through the streets the populace wept, and an occasional cheer was given for Queen Christiana. On arriving at the Palace the casket was carried by grandees from the car to the hall of the Palace, where the body will lie in state from Saturday until the day of the funeral. The members of the new Ministry are Fusionists, with the exception of Rios Marios, and Martel, who belong to the dynastic left. General Martinez Campos to-day convened the superior officers of the army near Madrid and declared himself ready to obey any ministry or chief that the Queen might appoint. All present swore to uphold the constitution and maintain the succession. The Epoca says that soldiers on furlough have been ordered to rejoin their regiments immediately. It is reported that a Carlist rising is imminent in Navarre.

TURKEY'S PREPARATIONS.

SALONICA, Nov. 28.—The Turkish war preparations continue on a large scale. Seventy thousand troops, fifty thousand horses and one hundred and eighty cannons have been landed at this point during the last ten days. The Turks are confident of being able to repel a single attack by either Monavia and Servia or a combined attack of both. Turkish troops are being massed in the vicinity of Novi Bazar.

REVOLT IN OLD CASTILE.

MADRID, Nov. 28.—A state of siege has been declared in Old Castile, forming the present provinces of Burgos, Valladolid, Leigrogno and Santander. It is reported that revolutionary agents, with important papers, have arrived in the northern provinces.

DEATH OF A DANISH PRINCE.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 28.—Prince Frederick, brother of King Christian, of Denmark, is dead.

DON CARLOS INTERVIEWED.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—An interview with Don Carlos is published to-day, in which the Spanish pretender says that he will remain quiet so long as Spain is tranquil, but will interfere to defend the Monarchy if Anarchists or Republicans threaten it.

LIKED TO STOP.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 28.—The Porte has telegraphed to Prince Alexander, asking him to stop the advance of the Bulgarian army in Servia.

HEAVY SENTENCES.

VIENNA, Nov. 28.—Despatches received here state that the Bulgarian garrison at Widdin made a sortie but were repulsed after desperate fighting. Seventy barrels were secured and a hand to hand struggle ensued. The encounter was heavy on both sides.

NEW SPANISH MINISTRY.

MADRID, Nov. 27.—The Queen has accepted the following Cabinet: Senor Sagasta, Prime Minister; General Jovellar, Minister of War; Senor Canseco, Minister of Finance; Senor Rios, Minister of Public Works and of Public Instruction; Senor Gamazo, Minister of Colonies; Senor Bensager, Minister of Marine; Senor Gonzoles, Minister of Interior; Senor Alonso Martinez, Minister of Justice; Senor Moret, Minister of Foreign Affairs. Senor Moret is a free trader. The Cabinet, as a whole, is considered an excellent and conciliating one.

THE BULGARIA-SERVIA WAR.

BELGRADE, Nov. 27.—King Milan has joined the army near Pirot, where he will soon take command of eighty thousand men. Gen. Topolovitch has refused to propose an armistice to Prince Alexander.

VIENNA, Nov. 27.—It is understood that Prince Alexander is willing to grant an armistice, if Servia withdraws her troops from Walden, and pays an indemnity of $5,000,000.

SOFIA, Nov. 28.—Reports from Prince Alexander's headquarters, at the front, state that the Bulgarians continue their forward movements. A severe battle was fought at Pirot, in which the Bulgarians forced the Servians to retire at the point of the bayonet, and captured that town. The town is occupied by a force of Bulgarians, and a portion of Prince Alexander's army has advanced several kilometers beyond the town.

BULGARIAN SUCCESS.

RUSTCHUK, Nov. 27.—The Bulgarian commander, at Widden, telegraphs that the Servians, under Gen. Leschjanin, attacked that place under a pretense of an armistice, but were repulsed with a heavy loss. A force of Bulgarians from Lom Palanka carried the Servian positions near Arsar Palanka.

HOUSES OF PROSTITUTION.

Memorial Presented to the Chief Justice Asking for their Removal.

The following memorial, which was numerously signed by leading citizens, was presented to the presiding Judge of the assize court on Thursday last and was referred to Mr. Justice Gray on Friday. The document speaks for itself. Whatever action the Attorney-General, to whom the matter has been referred, may take in respect to the memorial, it is unquestionable that in the interest of property owners in the immediate locality, as well as on behalf of morality, the nuisance should be abated. The public will await with much interest to see what the legal representative of the government is going to do about it. Dare he act? The following is the memorial:

To the Honorable the Chief Justice and the Justices appointed to take the Assize to be holden at Victoria on the 23rd November, 1885, and to the Grand Jury:

We the undersigned citizens and residents of Victoria respectfully state as follows:

1st. That it is notorious that one of the principal streets of Victoria known as Broad street (situate between the two leading streets of the town, viz.: Government street and Douglas street) is the resort of prostitutes and many of the buildings thereon have been given up to their occupation and use, thereby rendering the remaining property held by men who decline to lend themselves to this business, of small value.

2nd. That some of the buildings are reported to be owned by leading citizens, whose names can be obtained by reference to the Land Registry Office, and probably from the police.

3rd. That the parties owning the property are all well aware for what purpose the same is used, and charge most exorbitant rents for the same in consequence, which rent it would be impossible to obtain for any other purpose, and by so doing shew that they are participants, to say nothing worse in the fruits of the prostitution of the unfortunate women who occupy the same.

4th. That we consider it absurd and unjust to request you to attempt to punish the women, but we respectfully suggest that you should exercise your authority, and request the Honorable Judge who is holding this Assize, to direct the Honorable the Attorney General to prefer true bills against the parties owning the property.

DRAMATIC DOINGS.

Geo. C. Miln played "Richelieu" in Ottawa, Ont., on the 11th inst.

An autopsy is to be held on the brain of John McCullough. Four physicians, James McCullough said the nurse, Nutt, will be the only ones present. This is at Mrs. McCullough's request, as she has said that she wishes the medical profession to be satisfied as to the mental disorders that are supposed to have been the cause of his death, and regarding which such a wide difference of opinion exists. Besides, Mrs. McCullough fears that if an autopsy is not made curious medical students may be led to attempt grave robbery.

Dillon & Steadman have secured from Robson and Crane the right to play "Our Boarding House" season of 1886-7.

At Shreveport, La., in the last act of the farce "The youth that never saw a woman," Katie Putnam was taken very ill and fainted on the stage, and was unable to go on with the performance. Although feeling very much elated for Marshall, Texas, where she was billed to appear on the 10th instant. At that place she was compelled to cancel her dates.

On Sunday evening, the 27th inst., there was a $1,500 house at Hauck's Opera House, Cincinnati, to see Goodwin's "Skeleton Key." Dr. Sol Goodwin was arrested for playing on Sunday. He will fight the case.

Parlor opened her engagement in Chicago in "La Femme a Papa" to a house only fairly filled, but quite enthusiastic and successful in the actress' usual manner.

Kate Castleton played "Fanny Rice" in Louisville by on the 17th inst.

Gilbert & Sullivan's new opera "The Mikado" is having an immense run at Prince of Wales' Theatre, London.

SEWERAGE AND HEALTH.

Many of THE TIMES readers who in their travels have entered Chicago by the Michigan Central Railway will recollect of the city of Pullman, located a short distance southeast of the first named city on the prairie. Even those but passing through Pullman are at once impressed with its great beauty. That city being the creation of one man, it is not to be wondered at that every modern system in the laying out of a model city has been adopted. Social experiments are in progress there, which are attracting the attention of the civilized world, as affording a solution of many vexed questions in civic administration, so far as its effects on the health and happiness of the people is concerned. Six years ago Mr. PULLMAN determined to concentrate the various [illegible] his company into one locality. It was essential to his purpose, from a business point of view, that a site should be obtained from which he could have easy communication with the whole country; and yet he desired, above all things, to remove his workmen from the close quarters of a great city, and to give them the healthful benefits of good air, good drainage, and good water, and where they would be free, so far as it would lie in the power of the management to keep them free, from the temptations and seductive influences of a great centre of population. He succeeded in obtaining such a site on a plot of land of some 4,000 acres. On this site rose the handsome little town which now bears his name. Ground was first broken on the 25th of May, 1880, the first efforts being directed to the scientific draining of the site. The success with which this has been accomplished has done a great deal towards the realization of Mr. PULLMAN's conception, as it has enabled him to establish one of the most successful methods of dealing with the sewage of a rapidly-increasing population that we know of in operation. A farm of 140 acres has been established at some distance, which receives the whole of the sewage of the town, and which promises to prove a great financial success. The secret of this success is mainly this, that the sewage is pumped direct to the farm without delay, and without the intervention of any filtering tanks or abortive efforts at deodorization. About $1,000,000 was spent on drainage and sewage before a building was erected in the future city; and, as may be easily understood, equal care was exercised in constructing workshops and dwellings so as to render them suitable for the purposes intended and healthful to those who were to occupy them. The town, which on the 1st of January, 1881, contained only four individuals, has now a population of 10,000, and some 1500 stone and brick tenement houses and flats, besides the immense workshops of the company and some handsome shops and public buildings. The total number of workpeople employed by the Pullman company is about 4000. The town has been most judiciously laid out. There are about five miles of solidly paved streets and the houses being built after a variety of styles have not that barrack like, forbidding look which dwellings in a manufacturing town generally possess. The streets are wide, well built, and wherever possible lined with trees and shrubs. The lawns and trees are kept in order by the company, and every care has been taken to secure convenience inside as well as outside the buildings. In short, the city is quite a paradise for the workman's wife. The testimony of every woman in the place is that housekeeping is rendered far more easy in Pullman than anywhere else. But there is one result of the Pullman experiment which looks like an important new discovery, to which public attention has not been sufficiently directed, viz., the extraordinarily low death rate of this town. The number of deaths that occurred during the past six months was twenty-nine, and the average from the beginning has been only seven per thousand, as against twenty-one or twenty-two per thousand in the average of American cities. This unprecedented result transcends the dreams of the sanitary profession, and must be attributed to the unique system of drainage introduced. By the system adopted no sewage is permitted to remain within the inhabited precincts more than two hours. Everything is removed by pumping machinery to a distant point and spread upon agricultural land before fermentation begins. Therefore no sewer gas is ever formed, either in the town or out of it, from the proceeds of drainage. That which commonly goes to the production of diphtheria among children, and of typhoid among adults, becomes a valuable fertilizer of the soil. Such results had been foretold by eminent scientists at various times, but we think that no one ever ventured to predict that the death rate in a closely built city could be reduced as low as 7 per thousand. If such results can be produced in Pullman, where the natural difficulties for drainage are great, what may not places like Victoria and similarly situated cities be able to accomplish? The sewage here could all be carried off without much difficulty and converted to valuable economic uses, as is done elsewhere. The sewage of the city is a question that is beginning to attract the earnest attention of our citizens generally, and any practical, well digested scheme, submitted to the people, will be read and studied with interest.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

JOSEPH DION, the celebrated billiard player of Montreal, was locked up in Bellevue Hospital, New York, suffering with acute delirious mania.

SARDINING on an extensive scale is still being carried on along the Nova Scotia coast. Hardly a day passes without a report being published of the seizing of contraband goods.

SINCE the raising of ostriches was begun in California, the Cape Town government has placed an export duty of $500 on each ostrich taken out of the country. Fear of American competition is the cause.

MONTREAL Star: It would test the political feeling in this province squarely if the present Conservative members of the Dominion House were to resign their seats, and then offer themselves for re-election, pledged to oppose the government. In the absence of some such move as this, SIR JOHN will probably be content to assume that much of the present agitation is pure clap-trap.

THE recent free trade convention in Chicago boldly threw off its mask. MR. WELLS declared that one of their objects was that "the articles necessary to the processes of domestic industry, whether of domestic or foreign origin, shall be free from taxes." This means the abolition of duties on coal, ore, iron, wool, and other raw materials which the United States produces. It also means the turning over of American labor to the tender mercies of English capitalists.

CHICAGO Tribune: The completion of the Canadian Pacific railway has stirred up the railway world wonderfully. Theories, suggestions and rumors about the new route are flying the rounds of the press at a prodigious rate. The Canadians promised to show us some new thing in railroading. If they do one-half of what is expected of them in the way of lowering rates and treating the public with fairness, their new line will be an incalculable benefit to the entire Northwest.

THE Reformers of Toronto have passed a resolution to establish ward organizations for the purpose of placing candidates in the field for the coming municipal elections who will be pledged to support economy in expenditure, fair play to all tenders for public works and supplies, the appointment to public offices of only such as are competent, and the breaking up of rings which have done much to bring about the enormous expenditure and consequent high rate of taxation, and that a committee be appointed to draft a platform of municipal reform for Toronto.

TECHNICAL SCHOOLS.

THE KNOWLEDGE WHICH ENABLES ONE TO EARN BREAD.

An Investigating Committee Looking After the Theory and Practice of Industrial Schools on the Continent—Examples of Note.

[Sarah K. Bolton in The Congregationalist.]

No person visits England without being deeply interested in her schools for technical or industrial education. This is comparatively a new matter with her. At her great exposition in London, in 1851, largely the result of Prince Albert's foresight and energy, England led the world in textile fabrics, and doubtless in machinery. Eleven years later, at a second world's fair in London, she discovered that the outside world was making great progress, and at the exposition in Paris in 1867 she found herself outdone by French and German looms and by the iron and steel industries of Belgium and Berlin.

At once she sent an investigating committee to the continent, who found technical schools in every large industrial center, supported by state or city. There every boy or girl could learn the theory, or the practice, or both, of the trade or profession to be followed for a livelihood. Paris had nearly 100 free art schools for adults, most of the pupils being workingmen. The College de France and the Conservatoire des Arts et Metiers were thronged by workingmen and women, eager to hear the free lectures in social and physical science, biology, mathematics and languages. A large amount of money was given for workshops in connection with primary schools. The committee found another admirable thing, viz.: That in French schools of every grade corporal punishment is absolutely unknown.

Since 1867 Paris herself has made great strides in industrial education. In the children begin to learn drawing, carving, joiner's or smith's work, from their 6th year. The school hours are from 8 to 6; in the higher classes the work in the shops consume eighteen hours per week. On leaving school the pupils can earn $1 a week. Twenty-three primary schools have workshops attached, and twenty-five others are in preparation for combining mental and manual instruction. The latter is usually optional, given before and after school hours.

Several of the municipalities of France have established free public apprenticeship schools, where children, after leaving the primaries, can receive practical instruction in the trades for three years, besides advancement in other branches. In the summer they visit industrial establishments and give descriptions of them in writing. At the beginning of the second year of the course they select their trade. They enter school at 7 a. m. and leave at 7 p. m., six hours in workshop and four in school, with two for dinner and recreation, usually in gymnasium. On leaving, the pupils can earn from $1 to $1.50 per day. Paris has found that money spent to make men and women self supporting is a safeguard against crime. As the trades will not usually receive young learners, Paris has solved the matter by her excellent apprenticeship schools.

Belgium, Switzerland, Germany, have been fast her technical schools, provided through private gifts generally, are not free, and, therefore, cannot reach those most needing assistance. The state must eventually take the matter in hand, giving us not only free schools, but free books, and free opportunities to learn how to earn a living. England ascertained all these facts and more in Germany and Switzerland, and profited by them. In 1874 she established Yorkshire college at Leeds, with classes in mathematics, languages, chemistry, geology, engineering, coal mining, weaving, dyeing, etc., with evening schools and popular lectures for the people, at the low price of 4 cents each. Weaving schools were begun at Huddersfield and Glasgow, and mechanics' institutes were opened in various parts of the country.

I was fortunate in being present at the grand opening of Bradford technical school, June 30, 1882. Bradford is the center of the woolen trade, and, with a population of a little over 200,000, pays an income tax on $45,000,000. The prince and princess of Wales had come from London by special Pullman train. Houses were decorated with banners, and triumphal arches spanned the roadway. At the station the platform was draped with crimson cloth, surmounted by a beautiful canopy of flowers. The procession of lord mayors, members of parliament, trade societies, cavalry, artillery, and infantry made an imposing pageant. The prince opened the door of the elegant school building, Italian in style, with great central tower, with a key of gold and silver nearly a foot long, bearing his arms and the words, "I abor omnia vincit."

Various guilds contributed largely to the building fund, while wealthy manufacturers gave plants of machinery and scholarships. Besides a public hall the building contains an industrial museum where the products of the arts and trades are shown, chemical laboratory, library, art department and model manufactory, exhibiting all the processes of combing, spinning, weaving and dyeing.

The Odor of the Hayfield.

[American Agriculturist.]

Going from New England to a western state many years ago, the writer was struck with the difference between the two localities in the haying season. In the older states the air at haying time is redolent of the most delightful fragrance, making it a pleasure to be out of doors. At haying time in the western locality there was only a clear, woody odor, quite unlike that to which we had been accustomed. In looking into the reason for this lack of pleasant odor at haying, we examined the hay, and while all the usual grasses were present, we could find no trace of the sweet-scented vernal grass, anthoxanthum odoratum, so common in eastern meadows. In itself this grass has little value, indeed its chief merit lies in its odor. This is destroyed as the herbage dries, and a few spears of this grass will impart its fragrance to a large mass of hay. This grass should always form a part of a mixture for seeding a lawn.

Castle Rooms for a Traveling Dress.

[New York Co. Gentleman.]

I saw a young woman who was about to start for a tour in Texas and Mexico. She would of course take plenty of money along, as this region of highwaymen and in a way which would baffle them. So she had a traveling dress trimmed lavishly with buttons costing $5 to a $100 each. The cheaper ones contained gold pieces neatly laid between the wooden molds, which were covered with cloth in the usual fashion. The costlier buttons were also gold mounted with United States fives. As fast as she required cash she would cut off these adornments, replacing them with ordinary ones of the same outward pattern.

The American Way.

[Chicago Herald.]

Alberta is just now in the midst of a political campaign, and the Victoria shopkeepers, not so accustomed to quarrels as Americans, have joined in their election excitement. The canvassers [illegible] you not to worry or say more about the elections.

The Ailment.
[Harper's Weekly.]

Her lord enters in tattered and disordered plight, and being greeted with some asperity, explains: "Hole on, Minny; I'z gwine to explain. Yo' see, I was at de club, an' dere was a split—"

She. "En jedgin' from yo' looks yo' master ben right in de split. Come in yar," etc.

American Home-Made Biscuits.

[Detroit Free Press.]

"I see, dear, that you are getting along well with your household duties," said a young husband to his wife, holding up a piece of biscuit and looking at it critically.

"Oh, goody," she exclaimed, "I am so glad you like the biscuit, George."

"Yes," he replied, "you are getting along well; but," he continued, "allow me to offer a suggestion. Pull some iron into your next batch of biscuits. I have a lingering suspicion, dear, that you used sheet iron this time, because you see I can break this biscuit easily over my knee."

She called him a horrid thing, and they never speak now unless there is company present.

Love in Quebec.

[Life.]

Whose little embonpoint is on I 'se come little embonpoint.

Amphibious.

[Louisville Courier-Journal.]

They were discussing their natatorial capacity.

"Swim! Divel Why, I can remain under water twenty minutes at a time."

"Only twenty minutes. Why, the other day I staid under water a whole hour. To be sure, it was because I fell into a dose and overslept myself, but still——" (The other has fainted.)

Double Entendre.

[New York Mercury.]

"What do you charge for pullin' teeth?" asked a countryman of a dentist.

"Fifty cents, without pain."

"Ah! how much when it hurts?"

"Twenty-five cents."

"All right, mister. My old woman'll be up here some time durin' the forenoon with a jumpin' tooth, and you just yank it out an' tell her the charges is all paid. There's a quarter."

When the Leaves Begin to Fade.

This is the time of the year when the young lady goes hunting for autumn leaves and finds more hay fever and rheumatism and influenza and wood-ticks than she knows what to do with.

Cloves Parted Them.

"I just went out to see some one," said he, in answer to her question, as he tried to lean his cane on the back of an orchestra chair. "Yes," said she, picking up a bill of the play, "you've been to see the evil one." "Why," said he, laughing, "do you see the cloven foot?" "No," was the reply, "but I smell the cloven breath." And for the rest of the evening not even the hallowing of the big trombone was able to smother the silence that settled over those two young hearts."

Brief and Genuine.

[Paris Paper.]

"Yes, brethren," says the clergyman who is preaching the funeral sermon, "your deceased brother was cut down in a single night—torn from the arms of his loving wife, who is thus left a disconsolate widow at the early age of 54 years."

"Twenty-two, if you please," sobs the widow in the front pew, emerging from her handkerchief for an instant.

They Were Twins.

[Texas Siftings.]

"What two beautiful children! Are they twins?" said an old bachelor to a married lady with two children.

"Oh, yes, they are twins," replied the lady.

"Excuse my curiosity, madame; but are you the mother of both of them?"

That Same Old Trouble About the Elephant.

[Fall River Advance.]

The reason why very old people like to go to a minstrel show is because they have their minds refreshed with the jokes they listened to when, in innocent boyhood's days, they had crept under the circus tent and were having a luxurious time trying to decide which was the right end of the elephant.

And Often a Long Home, Most Free.

[New Orleans Picayune.]

The British soldier gets twenty-five cents a day and a chance to see the world.

A Honey to a Mother Tree.

In Oregon a man has made a small assignable house by shingling over the stump of a hollow fir tree. The room is nine feet ten feet, with a door and window

Twin Foes to Life

Are Indigestion and Constipation. Their primary influences are among the most distressing of minor human ailments, and when of alliances, speedily promote fatal ones, mutually aggravate each other and assail at once the whole machinery of life. Nausea, Foul Breath, Sour Stomach, Dizziness, Headaches, Bilious Fever, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Kidney Diseases, Piles, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Drapsy, and various Skin Disorders, are among the symptoms and maladies caused by derangement of the stomach and bowels.

medicine is the first necessity for cure. Then the cathartic effect must be maintained, in a mild degree, just sufficient to prevent a recurrence of costiveness, and at the same time the liver, kidneys and stomach must be stimulated and strengthened.

Ayer's Pills

Accomplish this restorative work better than any other medicine. They are searching and thorough, yet mild, in their purgative action. They do not gripe like patent, and do not induce a reactive reaction, as is the effect of other cathartics. Withal, they possess special properties, diuretic, hepatic and tonic, of the highest medicinal value and

All diseases proceeding from disorder of the digestive and assimilatory organs. The prompt use of AYER'S PILLS to correct the first indications of costiveness, averts the serious illnesses which follow if that condition would inevitably induce. All irregularities in the action of the bowels—looseness as well as constipation—are beneficially controlled by AYER'S PILLS, and for the stimulation of digestive organs weakened by long-continued dyspepsia, one or two of AYER'S PILLS daily, after dinner, will do more good than anything else.

—A bad man just came into our office and asked the following conundrum: "Why is the editor of the Colonist like G. M. Gilbert, one of the authors of Pinafore?" Because he a Coal Harbor rater, (collaborator). The bad man vanished quickly and left us in a fainting condition.

—The U. S. Attorney-General Garland is determined that the arrested anti-Chinese agitators at Tacoma shall be prosecuted to a conviction if possible. This scented Garland is apparently bringing to the pro-Chinese nose the zeal which he forgot to use in prosecuting the telephone suits.

—Winnipeg Free Press: The car load of naval stores which passed through this city on Thursday last for Port Moody, reached there at six last evening, thus making the journey from ocean to ocean in one week. The car left Quebec on Monday morning last, Port Arthur on Wednesday, Winnipeg on Thursday, and Donald on Saturday.

—Mrs. Hampson, the Evangelist, is now in Portland. An association has been formed and a contract let for the erection, on Taylor street, on a lot owned by Grace M. E. Church, of a tabernacle to be completed by December 19. The edifice will be dedicated by Mrs. Hampson, and will be afterwards used for Evangelistic purposes.

—Messrs. Hall & Goepel, agents for the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Company, have laid on our table that company's calendar for 1886. It is a beautiful piece of artistic work. Their branch offices are named, as well as the income and expenditure. The net income in 1884 was $6,540,000; the life and annuity funds amount to $17,500,000; general reserve and fire insurance fund, $5,500,000. The total invested funds are $29,000,000, while the claims paid since 1836 amount to $59,017,000.

POLITICS TOO MUCH FOR HIM.

A lady on Fifth Avenue, New York, quickly summoned a doctor.

"Oh, doctor, my husband is nearly dead. He attended a caucus last night. He made four speeches, promised to be with his fellow-citizens again to-day. But, oh, doctor, he looks nearly dead."

"Has he been in politics long?"

"No, only last year. He worked hard for 'James McCanlay's election."

"He will get well madam! He has a stomach for any disease, if he worked for him!"

Political life, of short or long duration, is very exhausting, as is evident from the great mortality which prevails among public men. Ex-U. S. Senator B. K. Bruce, who has been long in public life, says:—

"The other day, when stepping into a car at a crossing, I found Dr. —— within, who eyed me up and down in a surprised way, remarking:—

"'Why, Senator, how well you look?'

"'Well, I feel pretty well,' I answered."

The doctor uttered an incredulous reply, when the Senator frankly told him in answer to an inquiry, that it was Warner's Safe Cure which accomplished for him what the profession had failed to do. Senator Bruce said his friends are very much astonished at this revelation of power.—The Globe.

Overwhelmingly defeated.

THE CENSOR CENSURED.

Astray in his Geography—A Valuable Mining Territory in British Possessions.

The venerable censor of the Colonist, who is ever watching to pounce upon the mistakes of others, committed a grievous error in this morning's issue, no doubt from ignorance. On the 28th of last month THE TIMES published an account of the past season's mining on the waters of the Yukon, calling attention to the fact that these gold fields were entirely within the Northwest territory, and not in the "interior of Alaska," at the same time setting forth the necessity of the Dominion government taking action to further the exploration and development of that promising portion of the "Great Yukon and Stewart rivers is at a point 20° east of the boundary of Alaska, which follows the 141st meridian west of Greenwich. From this it will be observed that Stewart river is altogether within the Dominion, as it flows westward from its source. THE TIMES again calls the attention of the Dominion authorities to the importance of that distant part of our vast country. As it pointed out before supplies are taken in without duty being paid, yet that is not particularly objectionable, in view of the expense and difficulty of transporting them. If a regular steamer was plying on the Yukon, from its mouth up, supplies could be landed in the mines at a reasonable price. As it is the steamer New Racket delivered last fall a quantity of provisions at the mines, at a moderate charge. This steamer is owned by parties who reside at Fort Reliance, a post situated within the Northwest Territory.

THE WINTER TRAIN SERVICE.

The people at Yale and everywhere in the interior continue to be excited over the probable discontinuance of the train service. A telegram from Yale says that word has been received there from Ottawa that it is quite possible there will be no train service after Monday next. Mr. Ingley is reported to be making arrangements for the carriage of the mails by sleigh conveyance. It is probable that the people are unduly excited, and without just cause. The company will study the interests of the public and of the road, and neither of these would be served by an absolute discontinuance of all trains. The road will certainly be operated sufficiently to meet the requirements of the people of the interior.

SAD CASE OF DROWNING.

Mrs. Esther Weinberg, (nee Levi), Tacoma, wife of A. Weinberg, wholesale liquor dealer, was drowned in the bay south of the Puyallup railroad trestle at 6 o'clock on Thursday morning. Two men, living in a shanty near the beach, heard cries and went out in a boat. When they reached her their boat capsized, and they had to look out for themselves. She was clad only in night robes. The body was recovered three hours after. Her husband missed her from the house half an hour before. It is generally supposed that she committed suicide, under temporary insanity, induced by her peculiar condition. Some say it was done in a state of somnambulism. No inquest was held. The husband is nearly distracted. They had been married only six weeks.

ST. ANDREW'S DINNER.

The annual dinner of the St. Andrew's and Caledonian societies will be held in the Driard Hotel on Monday evening. Ample preparation has been made to celebrate the approaching anniversary of Auld Scotia's patron Saint's natal day in a becoming manner. Already a large number of tickets have been secured by gentlemen intending to be present. Amongst the invited guests are the Admiral and suite, the Lieut.-Governor and his private secretary, Premier Smithe, the American Consul, His Worship the Mayor, and other prominent gentlemen.

THEATRE ROYAL.

The new Theatre Royal was filled by an appreciative audience last night to witness the production of the popular play "Rip Van Winkle." Mr. Snow's "Rip" was an admirable portrayal and elicited hearty applause. Mrs. Snow was equally happy as "Gretchen" and the support was also strong. The same play will be reproduced to-night, and a crowded house is assured.

APPOINTMENTS.

The Postmaster-General appointed in Oregon fourth class postmasters as follows: Naylor, D. J. Fire, Pleton, T. J. Miner.

Always ahead.—Fell & Co. have just received a supply of the season's fruit.

A POSER FOR THE "COLONIST."

To THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—The editor of the Colonist has kindly given this morning a calculation of what it costs to clear timber lands. Will he now extend his good offices further and inform the public as to the expense of removing mountains of rock and covering their foundations with earth of sufficient depth to make the surface suitable for cultivation?

ENQUIRER.

THE FIRST THROUGH TRAIN

From Port Moody to Winnipeg—The Passengers.

"Here comes the special from Port Moody," said a by-stander at the C. P. R. depot last evening as a locomotive headlight illuminated the freight sheds and other buildings in the yard. The next instant the train drew up in front of the station and the passengers began to alight. It was the first through train from Port Moody, and left the golden shores of the Pacific Ocean on Wednesday morning last. Of course all the time that intervened was not spent in traveling, as numerous delays were made. Donald was reached on Friday and Canmore was passed on Saturday morning. A steady run was made from the latter place to Winnipeg. Among those on board were Mr. M. J. Haney and family, who left for Ottawa by the regular train soon after arriving here. Mr. Haney was superintendent of construction on Onderdonk's contract. The others on board were Mr. James Ross, the well-known contractor, and his son, Capt. John Ross, and wife, Miss Ross, Miss Kerr, Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. Hoar, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison, Miss Coyle, L. Lukes, J. H. Armstrong, and H. S. Holt, all of whom are registered at the Queen's. Besides the party many others who never before breathed the pure air of Manitoba, were on board.—Winnipeg Free Press, Nov. 25.

POLICE COURT.

[Before E. Johnson, S. M.]

Louie, a Fort Rupert Indian, drunk; fined $5.

Ah Hong, on remand, charged with being in possession of a box of tobacco, the property of Thomas Earle, knowing the same to have been stolen. A. Mowat, an employee with Mr. Earle, deposed that a box of black chewing tobacco and a box of oysters were stolen from the store door on the 19th inst. The box produced is not the one, but it is the same kind. Wm. Smith, a barber, saw prisoner bring a box of tobacco similar to the one produced into a Chinese cabin about 10 o'clock on the night referred to. Case adjourned until Monday for further evidence.

PERSONAL MENTION.

D. M. Eberts, Esq., barrister, will proceed to Nanaimo on Monday next to be present at the coming assizes as crown prosecutor.

Hon. Mr. Justice Crease will preside at the Nanaimo assizes to be held next week.

The Olympian's passengers to-day: T Waterbury, J Cannell, N Donavan, W Curtis, Mrs Jones, C Butler, M Boulter, George Watson, J W Dobbs, E Baldwin, J Mitchell, A McKenzie, E Bushong.

The Princess Louise brought the following passengers from New Westminster to-night: Gov. Cornwall, Mrs. Cornwall, Misses Cornwall, Mr. Cornwall, Hon. J. Robson, D. B. Grant, T. McGregor, Capt. Peters, Capt. Currie, Lieuts. D. W. Lang, J. A. Givett, McQuiver, C. M. Steinbeck, W. Loudon, John Morrison, J. McKay, J. E. Field, H. V. Edmonds.

The faculty of the Ohio Wesleyan University of Delaware have forbidden students attending theatrical performances and suspended 63 for attending F. B. Ward's performance.

John A. Grismer and Phoebe Davies, supported by the Baldwin Theatre Co. of San Francisco will close a season of 12 nights in Portland this evening and will appear at the "Victoria" in this city on Monday evening in "Called Back." Of this play the Portland Oregonian says: "It is a most thrilling play, strong in plot and abounding in dramatic action, and in the version given last night the story is most coherently and succinctly told."

The gold and silver medals presented to John McCullough during his career are missing. They are intrinsically worth about $500.

"The Evil Genius," by Wilkis Collins, was produced for the first time at the Vaudeville Theatre, London, Eng., afternoon of Oct. 20. The performance was for copyright purposes merely, and the play was hastily read through to the few who availed themselves of the prescriptive right of the public to pay at the doors. The story is laid in Scotland and England, and marital infelicity is its subject.

George C. Miln says he is going to play "Pendragon," having secured the right from Lawrence Barrett.

The New York Clipper of 21st inst. says: The new Victoria Theatre which was opened Oct. 18 with "Pirates of Penzance" by a local amateur company, has a seating capacity of 1000, is handsomely fitted up, and is provided with first-class scenery and accessories. Grace Hawthorne closed a most successful week's engagement Oct. 24. Milton Nobles opened Nov. 2 in "Love and Law," following 3 and 4 in "Phœnix," and "Interviews," closing 5 in "Love and Law." Mr. Nobles made a very favorable impression, as also a financial success.

There is a weary, languid feeling, and often a sense of discouragement and despondency. Persons having this feeling should take Ayer's Sarsaparilla to purify and vitalize the blood.

BOARDING AND DAY PUPILS,

TACOMA, W. T.

Rt. Rev. J. A. Paddock, D.D., Rector.

By a magnificent gift of $50,000 from Mr. C. B. Wright, of Philadelphia, for the endowment of the institution, with the generous contributions of $10 000 by the citizens of Tacoma, and the liberality of Christian men and women in the East, a commodious and well appointed building has been erected and a College founded for the education of young men and boys.

The building stands on a high and healthy site, surrounded by spacious grounds, is heated with furnaces, is supplied with hot and cold water and bath rooms, and is thoroughly ventilated.

The dormitories have been arranged so that each boarder may have a room by himself. Teachers occupy rooms adjacent to the pupils; and, at all times, exercise a fatherly care and watchfulness over those committed to their trust. At meals, teachers and pupils sit at the same table, for many one family.

Professor John Tait takes charge of the Institution. He brings an eminent reputation and large experience, and will be assisted by thoroughly competent instructors in every department.

Mrs. Tait will, herself, supervise the household, and parents may, with confidence, entrust their younger sons to her motherly care.

The remainder of this school year will be divided into two terms, of twelve weeks each.

The first term will begin on January 7th, 1886, and end on March 31st.
